"Assessing writing: what every teacher should know"

Looking at written work is a common method of assessment familiar to many teachers, but when we think about writing assessment more carefully, there are many questions to address. What kinds of writing samples should be assessed? What should be done with writing samples once we have them? What criteria should be used to assess writing?

We address these issues in this webinar, and show how thinking about the purpose and context of assessment can help us to answer these questions.

Speakers: Luísa Geão and George Heritage

Luísa Geão has been working in ELT for more than 15 years as a teacher, editor and teacher trainer, both in Portugal and abroad.

At the beginning of 2016 she moved to Madrid to be part of the Cambridge English Language Assessment Spain & Portugal team, working as Network Services Manager.

George Heritage joined the team in Madrid as an Assessment Services Manager at the beginning of March 2016, after working in the Cambridge English Assessment department in Cambridge for 3 years. Prior to that, he taught a variety of Cambridge exams to all levels and ages in Spain, Portugal, Brazil, Costa Rica and the UK for nearly ten years. He holds a degree in Spanish and Portuguese and a Cambridge English CELTA.
