

APPInep: Celebrating Ten Years of Teaching Children in Portugal

Part 1 – Thinking about language diversity

“Do Inglês às outras línguas: potencialidades educativas nos primeiros anos de escolaridade” – Sílvia Gomes & Susana Sá

Part 2 – Training teachers

“Training teachers to teach English to young learners” – Mary Slattery

“SDRAWKCAB GNINNALP (PLANNING BACKWARDS)” – Jane Maria Harding da Rosa

Part 3 – Sharing practical ideas and approaches

“Going beyond” – Elsa Silva, Patrícia Soares & Velma Costa

“Get a kick out of it!” – Sandy Albuquerque

“For little hands... and feet” – Ana Demitroff

“A grain of sand and a smattering of colour: themes from ‘Lots and lots of really good ideas for your primary class’” – Chris Roland

“Keep on playing!” – Daniela Coelho

“Food for thought!” – Sandy Albuquerque

“Arts and crafts with young learners” – Odília Gaspar

“Taking wing for young flyers: drama in ELT” – Susan Hillyard

Part 4 – Sharing picture books

“What’s in a picture book?” – Sandie Mourão

“Something different – Ana Demitroff

“Telling stories, teaching English” – Odília Gaspar

“A story-based methodology: 2nd year students meet The Gruffalo” – Ana Alexandra Silva

“A class library – Vera Peixoto

Part 5 – Sharing projects

“Fun English 4 kids: 1 blog, 1 podcast, 3 classes” – Susana Araújo

“Project 4ward: starting from square 4” – Florêncio Moniz, Dalila Coelho, Irene Galrito, Conceição Teixeira & Cristina Lopes

“A local team: articulation, training and community involvement strategies” – Vera Lazana

“Projecto Edu-LE: English teaching in Madeira” – Carla Ferreira, Paula Freitas & Renato Carvalho.